Coaching Psychology in Schools
Enhancing Performance, Development and Wellbeing

Mark Adams, Adams Psychology Services, UK
Series: Coaching Psychology

"This innovative book is the first coaching psychology book specifically concentrating on working within schools and will be of interest to professionals who wish to develop their knowledge and skills in order to enhance the performance, development and wellbeing of anybody within this community."
– Stephen Palmer, from the foreword

This book demonstrates the value of coaching psychology as applied in education settings. Using real-life case studies and vignettes, Mark Adams shows how coaching psychology can be used to enhance the performance, development and wellbeing of teachers, leaders and teams in schools. Outlining creative applications of coaching psychology in educational settings, this book will appeal to coaches working in education, educational psychologists, school leaders, and other professionals in support roles in education settings.
